 C. A. No. 05-CV-189 KAJ
 Our File No. 800-74674

Dear Dr. Dalleo:

Mr. Richard Snyder filed the instant complaint pro se on behalf of the plaintiff limited partnership on March 29, 2005. By letter of April 7, 2005 (D.I. 3), the Court notified Mr. Snyder that an individual partner may not appear pro se and represent a partnership before the Court. The letter instructed Mr. Snyder to retain counsel within 30 days such that the litigation could proceed.

There being no response within 30 days, defendants moved to dismiss, not only on that basis, but also on the bases of subject matter jurisdiction, in personam jurisdiction and venue. Defendants' motion to dismiss and supporting brief were filed on or about June 3, 2005. As of this writing, Mr. Dr. Dalleo

page two

Snyder has failed to secure counsel, and has failed to file Plaintiffs' answering brief in opposition to the motion or any other responsive pleading. Whereas plaintiff's response is now in excess of 90 days past due, and whereas plaintiff has not moved to enlarge the time for the filing of a responsive pleading, I respectfully request that the motion to dismiss be deemed unopposed such that the proposed order is forwarded to District Judge Jordan and entered as an Order of the Court. In the alternative, I respectfully request that the Court let me know whether defendants can do anything to move this toward a disposition.

Thank you for this consideration.

Respectfully submitted,
